PHELLODENDRON

• Helps Fight Infection

Made of phellodendron bark and other natural plants, this tea clears Damp-Heat. In Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM), Damp-Heat can lead to various problems such as frequent urination, burning, itching, or pain in the lower body, and skin infections such as boils and red rashes.

Ingredients: Phellodendron Bark, Licorice Root, Green Tea.

YOUTHENING

• Anti-Aging

Made of high-quality Yunnan tea and traditional Chinese herbs, Youthening tea tonifies Qi and Blood and nourishes the Essence of most essential organs, according to traditional Chinese medical theory. As a result, this tea can help support bone strength, general stamina, and memory.

Ingredients: White Peony Root, Codonopsis Root, Sichuan Lovage Rhizome, Pu Erh Tea.

HONEYSUCKLE FLOWER

• Clears and Detoxifies

According to Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM), Honeysuckle Flower tea, made of honeysuckle flowers, dark green tea, and licorice root, helps prevent and reduce toxic Heat and Wind-Heat which commonly lead to problems such as sore throat, red and itchy eyes, and skin rashes. According to modern research, Honeysuckle Flower tea helps prevent and reduce infections and inflammation.

Ingredients: Honeysuckle Flower, Licorice Root, Green Tea.

SWEET MUM

• Helps Maintain Normal Weight and Blood Sugar

Naturally sweet and refreshing, Sweet Mum's delicious flavor has earned this tea a devoted following. According to modern research, this special type of chrysanthemum petal helps smooth daily fluctuations in blood sugar and control weight. For optimal taste and health benefits, we have blended these sweet petals with licorice and fine black tea. Delicious hot or cold.

Ingredients: Sweet Mum Petal, Licorice Root, Black Tea.

SAN-QI FLOWER

• Stress Support

According to Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM), stress, anxiety, and mood swings as well as poor circulation are caused by Qi, Blood, and Liver Stagnation. The fragrant san-qi ginseng flower is valued for its ability to pacify the Liver and maintain healthy circulation of Blood and Qi, leading to lower stress, improved circulation, and even moods.

Ingredients: San-Qi Ginseng Flower, Licorice Root, Green Tea.

REISHI

• Immune Support

Reishi (Ling-Zhi), a large mushroom known in China as "Miracle Vegetable," is renowned for its many healing properties.

According to Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM), Reishi (Ling-Zhi) supports and maintains Qi and essential energy, helping body and mind stay youthful and strong. According to modern research, Reishi enhances immune function and benefits sleep and memory.

Ingredients: Reishi (Ling-Zhi) Mushroom Extract, Black Tea.
